WASHINGTON.

as any Territory is owned by the United States. Mr. McLaughlin says if Congress will pass this bill ending the property in California, the institution can still be managed by the present board of managers and the whole question will be settled. Congress took similar action in the case of the Soldiers' Home in Montgomery county, O., some years ago.

FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

REGULAR SESSION.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—SENATE. When the Senate met today it adopted a resolution offered a few days ago by Mr. Rawlin of Utah providing for a general inquiry by the Committee on Indian Affairs into the matter of leasing mineral lands by Indians, into the authority of the Interior Department to approve such leases, and into the subject of construction of government officials with the making of such leases.

At the conclusion of routine business, the resolution offered yesterday by Senator Rawlin, directing the Secretary of War to inform the Senate whether what are known as the "Sedition laws" have been promulgated by the Philippine Commission, and if so, the date of such promulgation, was adopted without comment.

The Senate then decided, on motion of Mr. Hale, that the committee on the subject of certain United States judges, was taken up for consideration at the instance of Mr. Hoar, chairman of the committee.

DISCUSSION OF BILL.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The bill increasing the annual salaries of the Federal judiciary, Mr. Hoar made a brief statement in support of the measure. He believed the members of the judiciary would be satisfied with the increase of $10,000 a year, which would enable them to maintain suitable and proper positions in the judicial system.

Mr. Hoar said that the salaries paid by the government were not equal to those paid by many of the great States of the Union to the judges of the State courts.

Mr. Berry (Dem.) of Arkansas opposed the measure, but not so much because of the increase of $10,000 a year, which would enable them to maintain suitable and proper positions in the judicial system.

Mr. Hoar said that the salaries paid by the government were not equal to those paid by many of the great States of the Union to the judges of the State courts.

HOUSE SHOULD HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS AND PASS UPON IT.

SPECIAL ORDER ADOPTED.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P. M. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio declared himself uncompromisingly opposed to the proposed oleomargarine bill, and all kindred legislation. He believed that at the root of it lay a menace to the liberties of the country; that under its operation the strong could crush the weak. Nevertheless, as there was a public demand for the consideration of the bill, he believed the House should have an opportunity to pass upon it. The special order was adopted, 132 to 71.

Mr. Richardson of Tennessee, presented a matter of privilege, a resolution with numerous whereases, relating the pendency in the Senate of commercial treaties and bills affecting customs duties and revenues, and declaring it to be the sense of the House that such treaties and bills invaded one of the highest prerogatives of the House.

Mr. Payne, the majority floor leader, made the point of order that the resolution was not privileged. He contended that until the Senate actually sent a bill or treaty to the House, it was not a matter of privilege here. Mr. Payne incidentally declared that he agreed with Mr. Richardson's contention that the House could not invade the prerogatives of the Senate, but the simple assertion of the power could not constitute a question of privilege.

Speaker Henderson called Mr. Richardson's attention to the fact that a threat to infringe was not an infringement.

Mr. Richardson urged strongly that it was time to meet the issue. The claim was set up on the floor that the House had the right to decide whether or not it would pass a bill or treaty that it believed to be unconstitutional.

The House then decided, on motion of Mr. Hale, that the committee on the subject of certain United States judges, was taken up for consideration at the instance of Mr. Hoar, chairman of the committee.

Mr. Hoar said that the salaries paid by the government were not equal to those paid by many of the great States of the Union to the judges of the State courts.

DEALS FOULLY WITH ROOT.

Gardner Hits Too Low in the Seventh.

Hurricane Fight With Unexpected End.

Sigourney Out of Luck—May Cut Out Football—Monte Carlo Shoot.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—In the seventh round of what was to have been a twenty-round encounter between George Gardner of Lowell, Mass., and Jack Root of Chicago, the latter was awarded a decision here to night upon the claim of foul. In a hurricane fight, in which Gardner was the aggressor, but Root the superior boxer, the Lowell man was beaten, and finally forfeited the fight upon a blow conceded by a majority of the spectators to have been a straight foul.

Gardner found in Root no such easy opponent as "Kid" Carter had been, nor did Root find in Gardner so easily handled a man as was Byers when the two met here. Gardner, however, fought on the outside in a wild and uncertain style, while Root fought on the inside, determinedly and well. Gardner suffered the disadvantage of having his left eye practically closed by a right-hand punch in the second round, and he was never himself after that. In the fourth round, however, he missed his only opportunity during the battle. The Lowell man delivered a vicious right-hand punch that caught Root apparently between the ear, and the Chicago man went down. Root took the count to four seconds, and then, with a clever clinch, saving himself for nearly half a minute until his head was clear.

In the sixth round Gardner was fighting low, and the claim of foul was made upon two occasions, but ignored by Referee Phil Warden. When the round closed, Gardner was plainly in distress and stood small chance of winning. The seventh round opened with Root boring in methodically and Gardner fighting wildly in evident desperation. It was then, after ten minutes of work that Gardner started a left rip for the stomach and caught Root squarely in the chest. Root was thrown back to the floor with a groan, and Gardner was dragged to his corner by his trainer, Alex Gregorini. Warden at once awarded the decision to Root, and Gardner, approaching him, protested that the blow was purely accidental. The two people gathered in the Mechanics' Pavilion missed Gardner as he left for his dressing-room, and applauded Root's victory when he had sufficiently recovered to leave the ring.

"I did not mean to foul him," was Gardner's statement immediately after the fight. "I did foul him, however, and the decision was a fair one. I started a left-hand swing and Root rushed upon it. I could not stay the blow, and it lost me the fight. I think I stand a chance up to this time, and had much rather been knocked out than have lost it in this manner." Root, when seen in his dressing-room, said: "Gardner fouled me more than once. He complained early in the seventh of my fighting low, and I convinced him that I did not mean to play fair. I will leave it to the spectators whether or not I tried to deliver the blow. I simply know that he dealt it, and that it was a plain foul."

Root expresses a strong desire to meet Joe Chynoweth in this city next month, when the Western Club will bring off the fight. He says he would also like to meet Robert Fitzsimmons, but that suggestion was scarcely taken as a serious matter here.

FIGHT BY ROUNDS.
First round—Gardner was on his feet first, and waded right in, but did not land. He tried a right and left to the body, but was blocked. Root tried to put in left to the head, but the blow went wide. They clinched. Root was very clever, and so far easily evaded all of Gardner's blows. Root jabbed Gardner lightly on the face with left. In a clinch, Gardner landed lightly over the kidneys with the right. Gardner caught a vicious right for the jaw, just as the bell rang. There were no blows of consequence struck in this round, the men trying to get a line on each other's methods.

Second round—Gardner led for the head with a left, but was blocked. Root jabbed Gardner with left to face, and easily evaded a return. Gardner waded in, and forced Root to the ropes, but the latter sent in left to the body and sent the Lowell boy back. Gardner missed a vicious right uppercut for the jaw. Root getting inside of it, Root swung wildly with a straight left to the face, and a moment later duplicated the blow. Root blocked a right for the head. Gardner applied his left over the heart and evaded counter. Root tried to place his left on Gardner's face, but the latter bored in and landed a short, right-arm blow to the body. Root jotted a vicious right on the face with the left, and Gardner clinched to steady himself. Gardner looked groggy as the bell rang.

Fourth round—Gardner landed two hard lefts on Root's shoulder, and the latter went to the floor, partially from the force of the blows and a slip. Gardner had freshened up, and went after Root, landing a right swing on the head. Root put a straight left to the head and in a clinch Gardner tried to uproot Root, but the latter got inside of it. Root tried a right swing for the head, but went around Gardner's head. Gardner feinted with the left and put a light right to Root's face. Gardner seemed inclined to rough it in the clinches, and was cautioned by the referee.

Fifth round—Root scored with a light left over the eye and avoided a wicked right counter. The referee experienced great difficulty in separating the men. Root poked Gardner in the face with the left. They clinched. Root bored in and pushed Gardner to the ropes, landing left on the face. Gardner uppercut Root with a right on the jaw, but the blow lacked force. Gardner chopped Root with a left on the face. In the clinches Gardner appeared to be foul.

Ing Root, Root was smiling, while Gardner looked a trifle worried. Sixth round—Root led for the head with the left, but missed. Gardner held Root in the clinches, and was repeatedly cautioned by the referee. Root put a right to the body. Root forced Gardner to the ropes, but failed to land. Gardner did most of the clinching, and appeared to be afraid of Root. The referee worked hard to keep the men separated. Gardner blocked a left for the face. The men were clinched most of the time, and an effective work was done in this round. Just at the conclusion of the round, Root put in a straight left to the body.

Seventh round—Gardner tried with the right and left for the body, but was blocked. In a mix-up, Root put his right twice in succession to the head. Gardner again tried to land with the right and left, but failed to connect. He fought Root to the ropes, but more elbow work. Root sent a straight left to the face. Gardner's blows were very wild. Root sent a vicious swing to the jaw, and Gardner clinched. A clinch Gardner put left to the body and Root went down. It was claimed that Gardner fouled Root, hitting him low.

"CYCLONE" KELLY'S SUCCESS.
BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—In the preliminary to the Root-Gardner fight, "Cyclone" Kelly was awarded a decision over John Duker, the ex-amateur champion of the United States, in a ten-round bout.

SIGOURNEY A LOSER.
BALLS ROLL BADLY FOR HIM. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There was an exceedingly well-played game of 14-inch ball-billiards at the Knickerbocker Athletic Club tonight. Two high-class amateurs, Wilson H. Sigourney of San Francisco, who is entered in the A.A.U. tournament, and Martin Mullen, winner of the first A.A.U. tourney, were the players.

Mullen played a splendid game. He defeated the Californian easily, but Sigourney's average was good. The latter encountered exceptionally hard luck. The balls persistently rolled badly for him, and in a run of 29 they lined up on him five times in succession. Mullen averaged 16.15-24; Sigourney's average was 9.7-24.

MONTÉ CARLO SHOOT.
EXCITES GREAT INTEREST. (BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—One hundred and thirty-six shots were fired at the Grand Prix de Casino at Monté Carlo on Thursday, according to a dispatch to the Herald. Owing to the large number of misses the contest was intense, and it was only possible to finish two rounds. Thirty-seven zeros occurred in the first round, while thirty-one zeros failed to kill their second bird.

Mackintosh, who was a hot favorite, was defeated by an extraordinary bird from the right-hand trap. Seventy shooters have still a clean score, and it is very doubtful if the contest will be finished in the three days allotted to it. The betting was fast and furious.

KALAMAZOO COLLEGE FACULTY. (BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) KALAMAZOO (Mich.) Jan. 31.—The faculty at Kalamazoo College is considering forbidding football playing. The matter has been exhaustively discussed at faculty meetings, and it is believed that action against the big college game will be taken in the near future.

President A. G. Slocum says that a strong movement has been started in several colleges throughout the Intercollegiate Association to drop the game from State college athletics, on the ground that it is brutal. Kalamazoo College may be the first to do this.

"Kid" Broad's Weight Told.
CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—"Kid" Broad of Cleveland gained a decision over Tommy Ryan in a ten-round fight at the end of a six-round contest tonight at the Illinois Athletic Club. Constant clinching during the last two rounds was all that saved Sullivan from being knocked out. When the fight ended, he was a veritable wreck, and holding onto Broad, who was unable to shake him off and land a knock-out blow. The men caught weights, and Broad had at least six pounds the better of it. The winner has been matched against Benny Tanager at the American Athletic Club next Monday night. In the preliminary, "Young Monks" was defeated by "Young Sharky" in the second round.

GRIP, CONSUMPTION

Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky Cures Grip, Consumption, Malaria, Bronchitis, Asthma and All Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

Grip is an infectious disease, which attacks weak and strong alike, especially if the blood is sluggish, and generally involving the mucous membrane of the air passages from the nostrils down and including the lungs. Serious complications are liable to develop in the course of the disease, as grip settles in the weakest part of the system, sometimes the kidneys, the brain, the stomach, or the heart, resulting often in heart failure, but the most dreaded of all is when it settles in the lungs. Consumption is sure to follow and certain death if prompt action is not taken and Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky administered.

CURED

The fatalities resulting from this disease within the past few years have sufficiently aroused doctors to the importance of giving the disease the closest investigation. Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky is the only absolute cure for grip, influenza, bronchitis, asthma, consumption and all diseases of the throat and lungs; it prevents complications and bad after-effects that grip so often leaves in the system. Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky not only kills the germ, but it stimulates the blood, aids digestion and tones the action of the heart.

The voluntary testimony received from thousands of our grateful patients is proof positive that Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky is the greatest known remedy for the grip and all diseases of the throat and lungs and all wasting diseases from whatever causes. Doctors, ministers, public speakers, and a number of the leading temperance women praise Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky for the great good it has accomplished in saving lives.

Dr. William M. Morse, the eminent practitioner and world-renowned throat specialist, after careful study of grip in all its stages, says: "Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky is the only absolute cure for the grip and all diseases of the throat and lungs, and it is so effective that it will throw off the grip, germs and all other bad effects, because it is chemically pure and contains great medicinal properties."

PREVENTED GRIP.
BURLINGTON (Vt.) Jan. 31, 1902. Gentlemen: I consider it no more than your duty to tell you that the use of your Pure Malt Whisky has prevented me from having the dread disease, the grip, this winter. Everybody else on my street has had it. I am not over and above fond of whisky, but I took a moderate amount of Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky each day and have enjoyed better health in my life. My wife has also derived much benefit from its use. Truly yours, A. A. YOUNG, Manager Young's Information Agency.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
After being given up by several of our best physicians, having throat and lung trouble, and pronounced a case of incurable consumption, my sister started the use of your Pure Malt Whisky. She has taken three bottles, and is so much improved in strength that we are all feeling quite hopeful. MRS. BELLA BHAUL, Charlotte, Mich. Nov. 2, 1901.
